WORK ON THE SHERRY BUILDING.

AN ADDITIONAL LOT BOUGHT IN FORTY-FOURTH-ST .- ANXIOUS TO OPEN HIS NEW PLACE BEFORE DEL-

MONICO DOES HIS. Charles C. Deimonico and Louis Sherry are en-Charles C. Delmonico and Louis Sherry are engaged in a nip-and-tuck struggle to see which of them will first open his new headquarters, to be diagonally opposite each other at Fifth-ave, and Forty-fourth-st. Mr. Delmonico was out first with his announcement of his proposed movement uptown. Mr. Sherry, who had been on the still hunt for a location, found one a month or more later.

Almost immediately after Sherry had closed arrangements with Isaac V. Brokaw for the erection of a seven-story structure for the caterer's use at the southwest corner of Forty-fourth-st, and Fifth-are., the rental of the ground being $47,250 a year, Delmonico had the front elevation of his building planned and cuts of it were printed in the daily

Since then Delmonico and James Brown Lord, his architect, have been quiet. At the architect's office it has been announced that nothing was being one at present about the plans. A month ago orkmen began tearing down the three houses and wo stables on the Borkaw and Lee estates property, where the new Sherry's will stand, and in three weeks the demolition was completed. This is one of the quickest pieces of work of the kind on record, especially with the additional fact that the excavations have now been completed.
A week ago, when the last part of the foundation was being taken away and the excavation of the westerly half of the plot was nearly completed, only the rear half of the Sherwood, where Delmonteo's will stand, had been torn down, together with one story of the Fifth-ave, frontage,

Yesterday it was learned that still another lot and been secured for Sherry at the west of the property previously obtained. This belongs to the Lee estate, and it will give Sherry's building a frontage of 200, instead of 175 feet, in Forty-fourth-

Lee estate, and it will give Sherry's building a frontage of 200, instead of 175 feet, in Forty-fourthat, the Fifth-ave, frontage being 93.1 feet. Meansthille McKim, Mead & White, Sherry's architects, are completing the plans for the building.

As to the new features of these plans, James L. Libby, of James L. Libby & Son, the real-estate greats in the deal, said yesterday:

"With the large plot now secured and with the plans so far determined upon, the new Sherry's will be one of the finest buildings in the city. It has been determined definitely to make the structure nine stories high. The five upper stories will be apartments, either for families or bachelors. All of the bathrooms will have windows opening on the street. There will be two ballrooms. One of these will be the largest ballroom in the country. There will be a palm-garden and restaurant on the first floor at the corner, while in the rear, on the Forty-fourth-st. side, will be the cafe.

"McKim, Mead & White are working night and day on the plans, and the main features will soon be completed. This kind of building is a favorite line with these architects, and they have set out to make the new headquarters as handsome and attractive a building as can be produced."

One feature of the new hotel and apartmenthouse will be its wine vaults. Sherry proposes to make these the finest in the country. They are to extend out under the street all around the building. The stock to be placed in them is to be one which will be the envy of all who hear of it, and especially of those who sample it. The building is to be opened, nothing happening to prevent it, on September 1, 183.

It is pretty well understood now that Sherry has set out to open his new house in advance of Delmonico's. It will be a great race.

GEORGE CURTIS WRIGHT IN COURT.

EXAMINATION IN THE CASE FOR DESERTION-TESTIMONY FOR THE PLAINTIFF.

The examination in the case of George Curtis Wright, of No. 1,423 Broadway, who is charged with abandonment by a woman who calls herself Estells Wright and says she is his common-law wife, was continued before Magistrate Wentworth in the Harlem Court yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Wright is the father of Countess Zichy, who was formerly Mrs. Fernando A. Yznaga.

Mrs. Wright was the wife of Arthur Reditch, who, she says, deserted her seventeen years ago. She mays she has not seen nor heard from him in over seven years. The complainant, in the testimory heretofore given, alleged that she became usinted about fourteen years ago with Mr. Wright, who asked her to marry him after the th of his wife, who was then in poor health. After Mrs. Wright's death, the plaintiff alleges, ir. Wright sought her out and proposed that she ecome his common-law wife, as he d.d not believe in the marriage ceremony. She agreed, and they lived together for some years, until he deserted her some months ago, she says. The defendant alleges that he was never married to the plaintiff by contract or otherwise. He says Redlich, the plaintiff's husband, is alive and that he will be produced.

August C. Nanz, a lawyer, of No. 230 Broadway; Dr. Frank S. Halsey, of No. 123 West Sixty-ninthst.; Dr. W. F. Spone, of No. 125 West Thirty-fourthst., and E. B. Underhill, of No. 149 West Fortyfifth-st., testified for the plaintiff that they had always supposed that the defendant and plaintiff were man and wife. The case will go on August 20, when the defen-ant's counsel promises to produce Redlich.
